Chosing Correct and Incorrect Sentences Questions for SSC Exams Pdf

Question: 1

One of the four sentences given in each question is grammatically wrong. That alternative is your answer.

(A) I expostulated with Ravi about his decision.

(B) This is the inference from his statement.

(C) She has an abhorrence of frogs.

(D) Starch is an antinode of iodine.

Ans: D

Starch is an antinode to iodine.

Question: 2

One of the four sentences given in each question is grammatically wrong. That alternative is your answer.

(A) He atoned for the sin by giving alms to the poor.

(B) He came to us every third day.

(C) The first two pages of this book are torn.

(D) The dacoits robbed by belongings.

Ans: D

The dacoits robbed me of my belongings.

Question: 3

One of the four sentences given in each question is grammatically wrong. That alternative is your answer.

(A) It was I that gave away the prizes.

(B) Those who did this thing should be punished.

(C) He carried little Meenu and I on his shoulders.

(D) All that he said had no effect on me.

Ans: C

He carried little Meenu and me on his shoulders.

Question: 4

One of the four sentences given in each question is grammatically wrong. That alternative is your answer.

(A) He need not come to me.

(B) He reached to his destination.

(C) Never have I heard of such a thing.

(D) He accompanied me to the park.

Ans: B

He reached his destination.