

Civil Engineering Building Materials MCQ Questions and Answers Pdf Download

Question: 1

Galvanising means covering iron with a thin coat of

(A) coal tar

(B) glaze

(C) tin

(D) zinc

Ans: D

zinc

Question: 2

Brass is an alloy of

(A) zinc and nickel

(B) tin and silver

(C) zinc and lead

(D) copper and zinc

Ans: D

copper and zinc

Question: 3

The silica is used for preparing

(A) lining for glass furnaces

(B) silica bricks

(C) coke oven

(D) all of these

Ans: D

all of these

Question: 4

The cracks caused by shrinkage of the exterior surface of the wood exposed to atmosphere, are called

(A) twisted fibres

(B) wind cracks

(C) heart shakes

(D) radial shakes

Ans: B

wind cracks

Question: 5

Gypsum is a

(A) chemically precipitated sedimentary rock

(B) igneous rock

(C) metamorphic rock

(D) mechanically formed sedimentary rock

Ans: A

chemically precipitated sedimentary rock

Question: 6

Laterite is found in

- (A) Kerala
- (B) U.P.
- (C) Punjab
- (D) West Bengal

Ans: B

U.P.

Question: 7

The fire clay contains pure

- (A) magnesium
- (B) hydrated aluminium silicate
- (C) oxide of iron
- (D) lime

Ans: B

hydrated aluminium silicate

Question: 8

Soundness test of cement determines

- (A) durability
- (B) quality of free lime
- (C) initial setting
- (D) ultimate strength

Ans: B

quality of free lime

Question: 9

Stones used for ornamental work must be

(A) heavy

(B) light

(C) hard

(D) soft

Ans: D

soft

Question: 10

For construction of structures under water, the type of lime used is

(A) pure lime

(B) quick lime

(C) fat lime

(D) hydraulic lime

Ans: D

hydraulic lime

meritnotes.com