

Civil Engineering Building Construction Objective Questions and Answers Pdf Download

1. Vertical faces of walls meant for fixing door, window or ventilator are known as
  - a. Jambs
  - b. Sills
  - c. Corbels
  - d. CopingAns; A
2. Curing is required for
  - a. R.C.C. works
  - b. Lime concrete work
  - c. Brickwork
  - d. All the aboveAns: D
3. Fire resistance is highest in case of
  - a. R.C.C. works
  - b. Stone masonry
  - c. Brick masonry
  - d. Timber structureAns; C
4. A groove provided on the underside of coping to keep rainwater clear of wall is known as
  - a. Cornice
  - b. Corbel
  - c. Jamb
  - d. ThroatingAs; D
5. Steps provided from ground to main entrance in external wall is called
  - a. Threshold
  - b. Stairs
  - c. Pedestal
  - d. Any of the aboveAns: A
6. To make concrete blocks light
  - a. Fine aggregate may be avoided
  - b. Light weight aggregates may be used
  - c. Sections may be made hollow
  - d. Any of the above may be usedAs: D
7. Usual sizes of concrete blocks are
  - a. 190 x 90 x 90 mm
  - b. 200 x 200 x 100 mm
  - c. 400 x 200 x 200 mm
  - d. 400 x 200 x 190 mmAns : D
8. Concrete blocks may be given the following finishes
  - a. Coarse textured

- b. Glazed finish
- c. Coloured finish
- d. Any of the above

Ans: D

9. Reinforced brick construction is commonly used for

- a. Walls
- b. Partition walls
- c. Compound walls
- d. Lintels

Ans: D

10. Brick masonry constructed within a framework of wooden members to act as partition walls is called

- a. Lath partition
- b. Block partition
- c. Brick noggin
- d. Trussed partition

Ans: C