

Health and Safety Environment Quiz Questions and Answers

1. Which of the following is true about Biomarkers?
- a. Biomarkers are chemical or genetic changes that relate to an expensive
  - b. using Biomarkers, the volatile organic compounds can be found in blood or breadth
  - c. metals can be identified in blood, bone or hair using Biomarkers
  - d. All of the above

Ans: D

2. The probability of a risk occurring can be
- a. increased by increasing duration of toxicity
  - b. increased by increasing duration of exposure
  - c. increased by increasing the concentration of the agent
  - d. all of the above

Ans: D

3. The main components of the Policy cycle are
- a. problem definition and Agenda setting
  - b. policy establishment and policy implementation
  - c. assessment/evaluation of the policy
  - d. all of the above

Ans: D

4. Which of the following statement is true about Safe Drinking Water Act?
- a. It is enacted in 1974
  - b. It deals with the protection of the quality of drinking water coming from surface or groundwater sources
  - c. It authorizes EPA to set water quality standards to protect health and to regulate public water supplies to comply with standards.
  - d. all of the above

Ans: D

5. The gap analysis is
- a. An assessment of the difference between requirements and the ability to meet those requirements
  - b. it is an assessment between a current situation and a future, desired goal
  - c. both a and b
  - d. none of the above

Ans: C