

Maths Puzzles And Riddles Questions with Answer Pdf

Questions : 1

Which two numbers should replace the question marks?

Ans: 22 and 24

There are two interwoven sequence. Starting at 19, alternate numbers progress +2, +3, +4, +5.
Starting at 20, alternate numbers progress +2, +4, +6, +8.

Questions : 2

What number should replace the question mark?

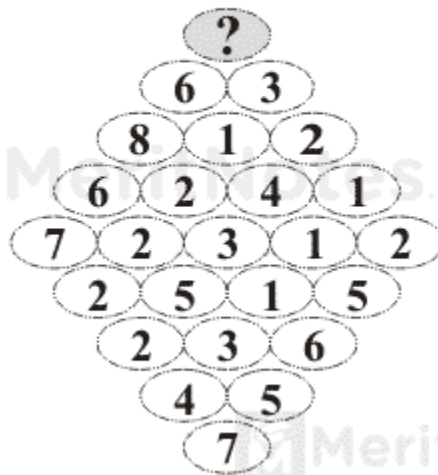

Ans: 109

Add the two digits together for each number, and add onto that number to produce the next number.

Questions : 3

What number should replace the question mark?

Ans: 7

The middle row totals 15, the fourth and sixth rows total 13, the third and seventh rows total 11, the second and eighth rows total 9, therefore the top and bottom rows should be 7.

Questions : 4

What number should replace the question mark?

Ans: 102

Questions : 5

What number should replace the question mark?

Ans: 97.4

The sequence progresses -0.2, -0.6, -1.8, -5.4, -16.2 (ie multiplying the difference by 3 each time).

meritnotes.com