

Verbal Reasoning Theme Detection Questions with Answers Pdf

Question: 1

There is a shift in our economy from a manufacturing to a service orientation. The increase in service sector will require the managers to work more with people rather than with objects and things from the assembly line. The passage best supports the statement that :

- (A) interpersonal skills will become more important in the future work place.
- (B) manufacturing organisations ignore importance of people.
- (C) service organizations will not deal with objects and things.
- (D) assembly line will exist in service orientations.

Ans: A

interpersonal skills will become more important in the future work place.

Question: 2

The school has always been the most important means of transferring the wealth of tradition form one generation to the next. This applies today in an even higher degree than in former times for, through the modern development of economy, the family as bearer of tradition and education has become weakened.

The passage best supports the statement that for transferring the wealth of tradition from one generation to the next

- (A) family as ever, is the most potent means.
- (B) economic development plays a crucial role.
- (C) several different sources must be tried.
- (D) are means other than the school.

Ans: B

economic development plays a crucial role.

Question: 3

The only true education comes through the stimulation of the child's power by the demands of the social situations in which he finds himself. Through these demands he is stimulated to act as a member of a unity, to emerge from his original narrowness of action and feeling, and to conceive himself from the standpoint of the welfare of the group to which he belongs.

This passage best supports the statement that real education :

- (A) will take place if the children imbibe action and feeling.
- (B) is not provided in our schools today.
- (C) comes through the interaction with social situation.
- (D) comes from the self centred approach of the students.

Ans: C

comes through the interaction with social situation.

Question: 4

The press should not be afraid of upholding and supporting a just and righteous cause. It should not be afraid of criticising the government in a healthy manner. The press has to be externally vigilant to protect the rights of the workers, backward and suppressed sections of the society. It should also give a balanced view of the things so that people can be helped in the formation of a healthy public opinion.

The passage best supports the statement that

- (A) the freedom of press is essential for the proper functioning of democracy.
- (B) the press can be used by the government as an effective media for the upliftment of the backward sections of society.
- (C) the press is the only means to project to the masses the policies of the government.
- (D) press has a great role to play in a democracy.

Ans: A

the freedom of press is essential for the proper functioning of democracy.

Question: 5

Industrial exhibitions play a major role in a country's economy. Such exhibitions, now regularly held in Delhi, enable us to measure the extent of our own less advanced industrial progress and the mighty industrial power and progress of countries like the U.K., U.S.A. and Russia whose pavilions are the centres of the greatest attention and attraction.

The passage best supports the statement that :

- (A) boost up production qualitatively and quantitatively by analytical comparison of a country's products with those of the developed countries.
- (B) are not of much use to the countries who are industrially backward.
- (C) are more useful for the developed countries like U.S.A. whose products stand out superior to those of the developed countries.
- (D) greatly tax the poor economies.

Ans: A

boost up production qualitatively and quantitatively by analytical comparison of a country's products with those of the developed countries.