

Theme Detection Questions with Answers Pdf

Question: 1

One of the most important humanitarian by products of technology is the greater dignity and value that it imparts to human labour. In a highly industrialized society, there is no essential difference between Brahmin and Dalit, Muslim and Hindu; they are equally useful and hence equally valuable, for in the industrial society individual productivity fixes the size of the pay cheque and this fixes social status.

The passage best supports the statement that

- (A) human labour has dignity and value.
- (B) all individuals, irrespective of caste and creed, are born equal.
- (C) castes and religions are manmade.
- (D) technology decides individual's social status.

Ans: A

human labour has dignity and value.

Question: 2

It is upto our government and planners to devise ways and means for the mobilisation of about ten crore workers whose families total up about forty crore men, women and children. Our agriculture is over manned. A lesser number of agriculturists would mean more purchasing or spending power to every agriculturist. This will result in the shortage of man power for many commodities to be produced for which there will be a new demand from a prosperous agrarian class. This shortage will be removed by surplus man power released from agriculture as suggested above.

This passage best supports the statement that

- (A) the industrial sector is labour deficient while the agricultural sector is overmanned in our country.
- (B) a shift of labour from agricultural sector to the industrial sector would uplift the living standard.
- (C) indian economy is in a poor shape basically due to improper mobilisation of man power.
- (D) employment in production is more fruitful than employment in agriculture.

Ans: C

indian economy is in a poor shape basically due to improper mobilisation of man power.

Question: 3

Though the waste of time or the expenditure on fashions is very large, yet fashions have come to stay. They will not go, come what may. However, what is now required is that strong efforts should be made to displace the excessive craze for fashion from the middle of these youngsters.

This passage best supports the statement that :

- (A) the hoard for fashions should be done away with so as not to let down the constructive development.
- (B) work and other activities should be valued more than the outward appearance.
- (C) the excessive craze for fashion is detrimental to one's personality.
- (D) fashion is the need of the day.

Ans: A

the hoard for fashions should be done away with so as not to let down the constructive development.

Question: 4

The attainment of individual and organizational goals is mutually interdependent and linked by a common denominator employees work motivation. Organisational members are motivated to satisfy their personal goals, and they contribute their efforts to the attainment of organisational objectives as means of achieving these personal goals.

The passage best supports the statement that motivation

(A) is the external force which induces an individual to contribute his efforts.

(B) is the product of an individual's physical and mental energy.

(C) is crucial for the survival of an individual and organisation.

(D) encourages an individual to give priority to personal goals.

Ans: D

encourages an individual to give priority to personal goals.

Question: 5

The consumption of harmful drugs by the people can be prevented not only by banning their sale in the market but also by instructing users about their dangerous effects which they must understand for their safety. Also the drug addicts may be provided with proper medical facilities for their rehabilitation. This will help in scaling down the use of drugs.

The passage best supports the statement that consumption of harmful drugs

(A) may be channelised through proper system.

(B) can be eliminated with the help of banning their sale.

(C) are due to lack of medical facilities.

(D) are on increase in the society.

Ans: B

can be eliminated with the help of banning their sale.

meritnotes.com